

CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FORESTRY & FIRE PROTECTION COMMEMORATIVE HISTORY BOOK

Attention: All CDF Personnel & Retirees:

As many of you know, the CDF is in the process of publishing an all new commemorative book to celebrate its 100th Anniversary. Hundreds of you have responded by submitting photographs, stories, and book orders, but still hundreds more have yet to participate. This is your last chance!

This historic full-color book will document the proud history of our department, with hundreds of historic photographs as well as candid and action pictures. Events of the past will be recorded, along with stories written by employees and retirees. Veterans of CDF understand the importance of what we do and the memories this album will preserve. For those who are new to the department, this book will demonstrate the proud tradition of your new career, a shining example of the call you have answered. The number of books printed will be based on the number of copies reserved in advance—so don't miss out on this unique opportunity! We want to be sure everyone is included!

Here's Your Chance to be Part of this Book!

We need all CDF members and retirees to participate so that our book may be as complete as possible. Therefore, the deadline for participation has been extended until July 1, 2004. Both materials and book orders need to be in by this final deadline. This is your book...a tribute to your service to your community and the perfect heirloom to pass on to future generations.

The Book Will Contain

- History of the CDF from 1905-2005;
- Full-color pictorial section with historic and modern photos throughout the state;
- Station information with group shots and action photographs;
- In Memoriam Tribute to CDF personnel killed in the line of duty, and much more.

In addition, I encourage you to reserve your own copy of this tribute for the special price of $55.00 each. The number of books printed will be based upon the number of copies reserved in advance, so you are advised to order now. Additional information and ordering details are located inside this brochure. Please join me in support of our new book—scheduled for release Spring 2005!
